

I would like to say that XM radio is an advantage to society with the programs that it offers. I currently take advantage of all its features and don't mind paying the extra money to listen to it instead of the public radio.